Consumer Notes:

Changes, Changes, Changes! You've probably noticed the May/June the new split monthly title on the page. Nope, we're not decreasing the number of issues each year, we're changing the Manga Stuf to include the next 2 months instead of just 1! This means we'll cover the releases for the current month plus all of the releases for the following month! Of course, date changes can happen so make sure to check the new release schedule each month!
